

GoodWeave Completed and Upcoming Evaluations

March 2024

Following is a list of evaluation studies/reports conducted in the past five years or planned to take place in the coming year.

Title	Year completed	Description
Final Evaluation of “Preventing Child Labor in Home-Based Carpet Production in Afghanistan” Project	2018	External evaluation of a five year program in Afghanistan, commissioned by ILAB, USDOL
External Evaluation of Ending Child Labor and Forced Labor in Apparel Supply Chains in India: A Pilot Initiative Implemented by GoodWeave	2018	External evaluation of pilot programming in apparel and fashion jewelry in India, commissioned by C&A Foundation
End Term Review, Modern Slavery Innovation Fund	2018	External evaluation of GoodWeave “Sourcing Freedom” project in India, commissioned by UK Home Office
External Evaluation of Child Friendly Communities Project in Carpet Supply Chains	2019	External evaluation of GoodWeave’s prevention programming in India, commissioned by GoodWeave International
Learning evaluation for GoodWeave’s “Building Capacity to Address Human Trafficking in Indian Supply Chains” project	2022	External evaluation of US State Department J/TiP fund project in India, commissioned by GoodWeave International
Mid Term Review, Modern Slavery Innovation Fund, Addressing Modern Slavery in the Bangladesh RMG Sector: Closing the evidence gap and informing solutions	Expected April 2024	External process evaluation of modern slavery research and preventative interventions in Bangladesh, commissioned by UK Home Office